FFBFFL WEEK 2 RECAP

I HATE IT HERE!

The early standings are beginning to take shape, but they say as much about scheduling luck as roster strength. However, it seems the football gods hate some of you as we have had a litany of injuries. Let's run through a few of them

- Caleb Williams was carted to the locker room after getting a cramp. Is Caleb Williams a woman? Is he on his period? Is he pregnant? Or is he just gay? Not sure, but the most surprising part about this game is that Carson Wentz managed to not fuck it up.

- Green Bay Packers wide receiver Jayden Reed exited Sunday's after the Jets flew a Boeing 737 into his head on September day. It's only fitting that Geno Smiths QBR was 91.1

- NFC East Hospital Wing:
    - Jayden Daniels: Tom Brady said "Oh Shit" on national television after watching Daniels do whatever gross thing happens to his elbow now. Daniels lied in pain as the athletic trainers attended him and in a beautiful display of respect and love the entire offensive line paid no attention to Daniels and immediately left the field as there are 5 of them.

    - Jaxson Dart: Dart went from making NFL history in Week 1 to having his regular season dropping off faster than the presidents approval rating. Speaking of which I've made a list of the bad things that happen to teams / players that ineract with 45 /47
        - 2019: Nationals lose third consecutive World Series game
        - 2025: Trump attends Super Bowl, roots for Chiefs; Eagles put belt to ass
        - 2025: Trump attends USA's Ryder Cup loss
        - 2026: Knicks lose NBA Finals Game 3 with Trump in attendance
        - 2019: Jeffery Epstein ~~extradited to Israel to play Fortnite and serve Netanyahu~~ commits suicide
        - 2026: USA suffers World Cup elimination after Folarin Balogun saga

    - DJ 'Please sir, I want some Moore' 'WHAT?!' 'I said please Sir, I want some Moore' hurt something im not sure, I don't get paid to do this. He is hurt that is all I know. Zay 'You belong in the wild' Flowers, 'You belong in a boat out at sea, sail away, kill the hours, you belong somewhere free' isn't on IR but is questionable for this week. Tank Dell Computer has malware in his knee again.

WEEK 2 (Girls, 1 Football)

JAYDEN NO 5 163.75 WE ARE CHRISTIAN KIRK 134.35

Don't wanna talk about it. WVU is 3 – 0 and the Eagles are 2 – 0 and that's all that truly matters.

TEAM CRASHEE RICE 122.60 YES CHEF 121.95

Abhik escaped the week's closest matchup by 0.65 behind CeeDee Lamb's 36.3 and Kenneth Walker's 24.8. Preston left a 27-point Patriots defense on the bench for San Francisco's 14, which earns him is second consecutive dickhead of the week award!

EL LUCHADORES 86.80 BEN SIMMONS BLOWS 80.90

Jack won the ugliest game of the season with the week's second-lowest score, overcoming one miserable point from Jaxson Dart because Dom Camp somehow did even less… Jack, the owner of a league-worst .309 career winning percentage entering the year, is now 2-0. Beware, For Christ said "The Meek Shall Inherit the Earth"

MOTHMAN FOR MVP 168.75 MARTINSBURG MAN WHORES 126.55

Jakob posted the week's high score behind 40.5 from Davante Adams and 39.25 from Matthew Stafford, with Chris Olave and Jake Ferguson also clearing 20. Dylan Turner scored above average and still lost by 42.2, wasting solid performances from Christian McCaffrey, Travis Kelce and Stefon Diggs. While I would say things are looking good for Jakob he tends to start hot and burn out. On the other hand I am pretty confident Dylan might go back-to-back last place.

INHOOD TRASH PANDAS 139.10 BRING BACK THE 4 FOR 4 128.60

Justin earned his first win with 39.8 from Patrick Mahomes and 29.2 from Jonathan Taylor, enough to survive Jaxon Smith 'can a Nijgba borrow a French Fry?' ridiculous 46.5 on the other side. Dylan W team sucked ass with three players combing for like 9 points or something Justin's 57th career win pulls him back into a tie with Mikey for the all-time lead after surrendering it for exactly one week… Really interesting rivalry between you two.

MOMMY'S LITTLE ALLSTARS 111.70 CRUISE CONTROL 95.10

Tyler is a bitch, he is a fraud, he hasn't fucking scored above league average or even come close… its pure luck. Actually, now that I think about it I am pretty sure I saw Tyler in a funny looking little hat the other day talking about how we was promised something 3,000 years ago… hmmm

Mothman for MVP - Jakob's 168.75 was 45.40 above the league average and five points clear of second place.
